

Alexander & Law

News – September 2006

Alexander & Law complete project for The Royal Pharmaceutical Society.

Alexander & Law has completed a project valued at £750k to refurbish and fit out the Council Chamber and offices at the Royal Pharmaceutical Society's headquarters building in Lambeth.

The works included extensive structural works in order to form new raised skylights in the ceiling of the council chamber. The building was fully occupied during the works.